

APRIL 11, 2007

Joshua R. Carver, Esq. joins Litigation Team at Paul Frank + Collins

Burlington, VT : Paul Frank + Collins is pleased to announce that Joshua Carver has joined the Firm's Litigation Team. From 2001 to 2007, Mr. Carver practiced law in the Boston offices of Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr LLP where he handled a variety of complex litigation matters including business disputes, products liability, construction litigation, and land use disputes.

"Josh and our other recent hires add to the depth of experience that our litigators offer clients in cases throughout New England and beyond," said John T. Sartore, Firm Member and Senior Litigation Team Leader.

Mr. Carver received his J.D. from Tulane Law School (magna cum laude) in 2001 where he was a managing editor of the Tulane Law Review. He earned his B.A. from Emory University in 1996.

Formed in 1968, Paul Frank + Collins P.C. is a full-service law firm serving commercial, institutional and individual clients throughout the United States and Canada.