

Attorney Albert Burgoyne Joins PF+C

APRIL 2008

Paul Frank + Collins has hired Albert Burgoyne as an of counsel attorney. For thirty years, Mr. Burgoyne lived and worked in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia, serving as attorney and associate general counsel for Saudi Arabian Oil Company and its predecessor Arabian American Oil Company.

"We are very excited about the opportunities Al presents to us," said PF+C attorney Frank Petrosino. "We fully anticipate that he will be an excellent addition to our firm."

Mr. Burgoyne joined PF+C as a member of the firm's business transactions team. He is licensed to practice law in Vermont and New York.

While with Saudi Arabian Oil Company, Mr. Burgoyne worked on numerous commercial and corporate legal matters with respect to the company's worldwide business operations. He has participated in the development and management of joint ventures with other international companies, worked on projects for the creation and expansion of industrial facilities of all sizes and complexities, handled international claims and arbitrations and negotiated resolutions and settlements of many commercial disputes.

Mr. Burgoyne currently lives in Stowe, Vermont.
