

Michael J. Case joins Paul Frank + Collins Construction & Development practice

Paul Frank + Collins is pleased to announce that Michel J. Case has joined its Real Estate, Development and Construction Department as a Paralegal. Mr. Case will be working primarily with the recently announced PF+C Residential Real Estate Practice.

Michael's experience covers several areas of the law, including commercial and residential real estate, environmental permitting, construction litigation, foreclosures, and probate and estates.

Mr. Case is a native of Columbus, Ohio and has been a paralegal in Vermont since 1983. He attended St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland and received his paralegal education at Woodbury College in Montpelier, Vermont in 1983-84. He resides in the Town of Grand Isle, Vermont with his son, Jeffrey.