

Alan D. Port New President of Paul, Frank & Collins

Burlington, VT, June 1, 2002: Paul, Frank & Collins is pleased to announce Alan D. Port as the firm's new President, effective June 1, 2002. Mr. Port succeeds John Sartore who will return to full-time practice as head of the firm's litigation department.

Mr. Port is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and is a Fellow of the American College of Trusts and Estate Counsel. He also serves as a Board Member for the Vermont Captive Insurance Association. He has served as a board member for a number of charitable organizations, including the Norwich University Board of Fellows, T.W. Wood Art Gallery, Vermont Affiliate of the American Red Cross, Vermont Heart Association and Green Up Vermont.

Mr. Port joined the firm in 1977. He concentrates his practice on Captive Insurance, Corporate/Transactional Law, Insurance, and Estate Planning. He received his B.A. from Middlebury College in 1969, his MA from Boston University in 1971 and his J.D. from Cornell University in 1976. Mr. Port lives in Burlington with his wife, Nancy Port. They have three children.

Formed in 1968, Paul, Frank & Collins is a full-service law firm serving commercial, institutional and individual clients throughout the United States and Canada.