

John T. Sartore Concludes Term as Firm President

Burlington, VT, June 1, 2002: Paul, Frank & Collins announces that John T. Sartore has concluded his term as firm President. The firm is pleased to announce that Mr. Sartore will return to full-time practice as head of the firm's litigation department effective June 1, 2002.

Mr. Sartore is a fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. He is admitted to practice before state and federal courts in Vermont and New York and has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America for business and personal injury litigation since 1982.

Mr. Sartore graduated from Yale University in 1968 and from Columbia Law School in 1971. Mr. Sartore joined Paul, Frank & Collins in 1971 and was elected President June 1, 1994. He served as a director of the Greater Burlington YMCA from 1993 to 2002 and as President of the YMCA Board from 1997 to 1999. Mr. Sartore lives in Grand Isle with his wife Sally Coppersmith. They have four children. Jenny, their youngest, is a senior at South Burlington High School.

Formed in 1968, Paul, Frank & Collins is a full-service law firm serving commercial, institutional and individual clients throughout the United States and Canada.